

MOU WITH READ PAKISTAN TRUST

Human health, economic well-being, and reading habits relate to each other. Government College Women University Faisalabad has leaped forward to strengthen its knowledge-friendly campus environment by signing an MOU with Read Pakistan Trust Islamabad. Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Robina Farooq from GCWUF and Mr. Farrukh Dall from Read Pakistan Trust signed the memorandum of understanding. It is a step to encourage our students to develop and promote book-reading habits. Both the organizations will conduct the following activities under this MOU:

1. Read 50 Books A Year International Competition
2. Writing Competition
3. Read Pakistan Book Club Joining

Directorate Student Affairs under Ms. Asma Aziz will organize all these activities in the university in collaboration with Read Pakistan Trust. Madam Vice-Chancellor appreciated the DSA for her efforts to initiate healthy activities for university students.

SECURITY POLICY FOR ENTRY OF GUESTS IN THE CAMPUS

The security office has released a policy for the entry of guests to the campus. There are various Meetings, Conferences, functions & Seminars being arranged in this university by the departments and the VIPs/Guests are invited. But the Security Office is not informed prior to the entrance of the VIPs/Guests. Subsequently,

It is very difficult to manage the entrance in time for the invitees. In order to enhance the dignity of the department/ entry of the guests with full protocol, it is requested that the Security Office may be informed by the HODs regarding the events prior to a day. A proforma for intimation to the SO has also been released.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

INTEGRATING SCOPUS IN RESEARCH WORKFLOW-GCWUF

Library GC Women University Faisalabad organized an online training session entitled "Integrating Scopus in Research workflow-GCWUF" on Thursday 09, September 2021. The Host of this session was Elsevier US West. The trainer was Dr. Shubhra Dutta (Customer Consultant South Asia A&G Elsevier). Dr. Shubhra Dutta highlighted the importance and scope of research in different fields of education, industry, and many other fields of human life. She educated the participants about how to create their account in the Scopus database. She described the Power of Scopus, Pre-requisites, and Process of Journal Indexation. She also discussed with the participants about different Journal Impact Measures and Benefits of Scopus Indexing. She talked about Predatory Publishing and Scopus Content Curation as well. Faculty members and Ph.D. students attended the session. In the Question-Answer Session faculty made queries regarding the Impact factor and data about published journals in different languages indexed in Scopus.
